Approved For Release 2005/12/14: CIA-RDP75-00149R80079025001812 doctorate at Columbia University in 1959. He returned to the academic world in 1954 when he became associate director of the Russian Research Center at Namenda a port he filled unfill

By PETER GROSE

Professor Shulman is a research associate at Harvard University's Russian Research Center and teaches international of Law and Diplomacy of Tufts University, Medford, Mass. He denied the charges and expressed incredulity that they could have been made.

For more than three weeks in Moscow he had been warmly received by old friends and persons of high academic rank. He was studying disarmament theories.

Contained at the end of a long ty more closely to the Administration's foreign policy.
Professor Shulman was also and the Federal to the Central Intelprofessor Manshall Intelpress agency transmitted a 500pressed incredulity that they word article, beginning "Americun Professor Marshall Shulman is expected to leave Moscow tomorrow after certain facts of the United Nations and other international organizations.
The appointees to this panel were named in a security case because they had been cleared by Otto F. Otepka before field investigations of their back-sures that could still be brought American professor arrived in to bear against Soviet intellectithe U.S.S.R. as a tourist and, tuals and foreign visitors, more although he had no invitation, subtle than they once were, but apparently still effective.

The first attack against Professor Shulman appeared in reasons the uninvited guest Izvestia, the Soviet government found no understanding in Mosnewspaner on Saturday four low"—an assertion that connections and invitations of the connection newspaper, on Saturday, four cow"—an assertion that con-days before his scheduled de- trasted with Professor Shulparture.

On Monday he received tele- the warmth of his reception. phone calls from the three Rus- In the week before his ar-sians with whom he had final rival in Moscow he was named appointments that day, each one in documents published by the saying he had suddenly discov- Senate Internal Security Subered another engagement at the appointed hour and would be otherwise occupied all day.

Like many other foreigners ments. who have received this type of "When one gets involved in call, Professor Shulman's mo-Soviet studies," Professor Shulmentary annoyance gave way to pity and depression. It appeared that sophisticated Soviet scholars, on occasion, still had to demean themselves before this ikind of discipline.

However, the treatment of Professor Shulman contrasts sharply with what happened in November, 1963 to Prof. Fred-cycle C Barghoorn of Yale Unicrick C. Barghoorn of Yale University. Mr. Barghoorn, too, was marked undesirable in Moscow.

Kennedy Obtained Release

As he returned to his Moscow hotel on Nov. 13 an unknown pedestrian thrust a packet ficer. wrapped in newspaper into his hands and the professor was hands and the protessor was as information officer for the immediately seized by security United States mission to the agents for possessing comprounited Nations and for the next his protessor bareloss as the special astervention of Professor Barelosses 290551241 Marcha-RDP75-00149R000700250018-2

Observers said the episode redecount of an incident in 1964 ground had been made by the vealed what is new and what of in which Mr. Shulman was also been made by the leged to have used psychological policy toward Western scholars, pressure to make a Soviet student defect to the United States. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States, which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator. The affair indicated that nerdent defect to the United States which security evaluator.

trasted with Professor Shul-man's carlier enthusiasm about Senate Internal Security Subcommittee as one considered a potential security risk for United States Government assign-man said before his departure from Moscow, "I guess he has to be prepared to be bruised from both sides."

A Captain in Air Force

once Professor Shulman worked as a reporter for The Detroit News and later as a writer for the National Safety Council. In World War I, he rose from private to captain in the Air Force as a glider pilot and psychological warfare of-

From 1949 to 1950, he worked as information officer for the Harvard, a post he filled until 1962.

Last month, his name was in MOSCOW, Nov. 2—Marshall At no time before his deson included him among members of an advisory panel for pert in Soviet studies, left here complain of any provocation or the Bureau of International Ortoday at the end of a one-month-attempts to interfere with his ganization Affairs. The appointment of the Soviet press had movements. branded him an intelligence opgradier. The first Izvestia charges erative.

The first Izvestia charges front by the State Department to link the academic community more closely to the Admin-

Tass then repeated the earlier investigations of their back-

STAT